COMMUNITY NEWS

Inspiring Happiness.

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Luella was born in Lemnos, Greece and came to the US when she was three months old, traveling by ship with her parents. She grew up in Bridgeport, CT, where she worked in the family-owned Famous Restaurant. After raising her three children in Bedford Hills, NY, Luella took a job at the Bedford Central School District, starting as a part-time employee and working her way up to the Principal position of Secretary to the Assistant

She had the distinction of being the longest serving employee of the district, retiring at 82 years old after 42 years of service. Several years after her retirement, Luella moved to Houston to be closer to her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughters. She remained active, volunteering at various neighborhood thrift stores and taking exercise classes at the YMCA. At age 95, she stunned her family by going on a zip-line! Today, Luella enjoys the community at Parkway Place and can always be found at the bingo table.

ASSOCIATE OF THE MONTH

Angel Noromo consistently goes above and beyond in her role as a Medication Aide, demonstrating that her commitment extends far beyond medication administration. She is known for her sweet and caring nature, always taking the time to ensure residents feel supported, valued, and comfortable. Whether she is assisting residents with their daily needs, helping them get to and from activities, or stepping into the dining room to refill drinks and assist with meals, Angel approaches every task with genuine compassion and a willingness to serve. Her kindness creates meaningful connections with residents, who truly look forward to seeing her each day. Angel's dedication, attentiveness, and heartfelt care make her a valued member of our team and a wonderful example of what exceptional service looks like.

“Embracing Seasonal Events”

As the seasons change, so do the opportunities for engaging in a variety of activities that can significantly enhance the health and happiness of Individuals. Seasonal activities not only provide a chance to enjoy the unique offerings of each time of year but also promote physical well-being, mental health, and social interaction. Engaging in activities aligned with the seasons can help maintain a sense of purpose, and connect with their community. These events encouraging Individuals to embrace the joys that each season brings.

Spring Fling Event

May is National Physical Fitness and Sports Month

Healthcare welcomes Malcolm Scott, Parkway Place Wellness Coordinator, as part of our fitness Program. This annual observance dedicated to promoting active lifestyles, improving health, and encouraging sports participation. Physical activity is essential for good health and happiness, no matter your age. Getting active may improve overall fitness and reduce stress, as well as lower your chance of getting certain illnesses. It is an initiative by the President's Council on Fitness, Sports, and Nutrition. Since 1983, each President has proclaimed May as National Physical Fitness and Sports Month to promote the importance of physical activity, physical fitness and sports participation.
