Health Notice From Our Broad River Therapy Team

"Research shows adults lose approximately 3–8% of muscle mass per decade after age 30, with the rate accelerating after age 60 – contributing to weakness, falls, and difficulty performing daily activities. Evidence-based studies show that older adults who participate in resistance training 2–3 times per week improve muscle strength, balance, walking speed, and overall function. Resistance exercise has also been linked to reduced fall risk, improved bone density, cognition, better sleep quality, and energy levels. The good news is it's never too late to start! Even light strengthening exercises using resistance bands, body weight, or hand weights can produce meaningful improvements in health, safety, and independence. Call your therapy department today to discuss a program that is right for you."

The Benefits of Summer Sunshine

After cooler months spent indoors, June encourages everyone to step outside and enjoy fresh air and sunshine. Moderate sunlight helps the body produce vitamin D, which supports bone health and strengthens the immune system. A gentle morning walk can improve circulation, reduce stress, and increase energy levels. Seniors who remain physically active often experience better balance, improved sleep, and a brighter mood. However, summer temperatures can rise quickly, especially in southern states, so it's important to stay safe while enjoying outdoor activities by staying hydrated, wearing lightweight clothing, and avoiding the hottest part of the day.

Honoring the Men Who Inspire Us

Father's Day is a special time to recognize and celebrate fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, uncles, and father figures who have touched our lives with love, wisdom, and guidance. The holiday often brings treasured memories of raising families, building traditions, and sharing life lessons that continue to shape future generations. Whether spent with family at a backyard barbecue, enjoying a favorite meal, attending church services, or simply sharing stories and laughter together, Father's Day is about appreciating the important role fathers play in our lives.
